On Tuesday, a small group of students travelled to the Arena to see the Festival of Magic show. Jaxon from KC gave this report - “Michael, was the Master of Illusions. Illusions can create a nightmare. There was a disco ball, and they put a sword on the top of it. A girl laid back on the ball and then they spun it around. When the ball went down, the sword went through her belly button, but she was still alive. Magic!”
